Instructions for Submission of Application Form :

1. This cover page and the ruled inner sheets both taken together constitute a consolidated Application Form for all the candidates belonging to the centre.
2. The ruled inner sheets sent separately are to be used by centres in proportion to the number of candidates.
3. The loose inner sheets should be properly inserted in this cover page and firmly stitched to it at the left hand margin of the facing sheet in the space provided for the purpose.
4. Superintendents are required to submit the Application Form in DUPLICATE.
5. Separate forms must be used for each of the two examinations, viz. Elementary and Intermediate Drawing Grade Examinations and they must be filled in English.
6. The Superintendents of Centres are required to furnish requisite information regarding the participating schools in the tabular form printed on this page while submitting Application Form for each examination.

Instructions for declaration of results :

The duplicate copy of the application and result form will be returned to the Superintendent of the Centre with the results duly filled in and certified. As soon as this result form is received, a complete list of all successful candidates, arranged according to grades, viz. A, B and C, for either of the Drawing Grade Examinations, should be prepared and the same be displayed on the Notice Board of the centre institution, precisely on the date fixed for the declaration of results, for information of the candidates and general public.
